

MEN'S and YOUNG MEN'S ODD PANTS

And now, while our stock is new, get your pick.

Blues, Serges, Greys, Browns, Plaids, and White Flannels and White Serges.

We have anything you can use in the work pant line.

Also "Pinchecks" in the "Sweet Orr" for the warm days.

SAM ROBINSON,
Stanford, Kentucky

Lost.—A blue serge coat at or near Moreland, on Danville pike, on the 7th of this month. Anyone finding same will be very much thanked by addressing me at Moreland. Miss Anna S. Reynolds. 47-1p

For Sale at Cost.—Everything in our greenhouse, to enable us to make a change. This is a great opportunity to secure flowers and plants at prices never heard of before. Ed Hubbard. 46-4p.

THE INTERIOR JOURNAL.

SHELTON M. SAUFLEY, Proprietor

$1 A YEAR STRICTLY IN ADVANCE

Entered at the postoffice at Stanford as second class mail matter.

Political Announcements

The announcements in this column are of candidates for office, subject to the action of the democratic primary:

For Congress:

COL. J. P. CHINN, of Mercer

J. A. KULLIVAN, of Madison

HARVEY HELM, of Lincoln

For Commonwealth's Attorney

EMMETT PURYEAR, of Boyle

W. S. BURCH, of Lincoln

For Sheriff

M. S. BAUGHMAN

B. W. GIVENS

J. G. WEATHERFORD

T. J. HILL

For County Judge

T. A. NICE

M. F. NORTH

For Circuit Clerk

J. D. WEAREN

J. F. HOLDAM

W. M. DUNCAN

For Justice

PEYTON FARRISH

GEORGE DEBORDE

DINK PARKER

WILLIAM H. HESTER

W. A. CARSON

For Assessor

P. L. BECK

S. M. OWENS

R. H. BRONAUDE

P. C. SANDIDGE

J. H. BOONE

W. T. GARNER

For Magistrate

J. T. ROBERTS

WILLIAM FIELDS

J. D. EADS

JOSEPH L. GOODE

Boyle County Democrats Have Been Highly Honored With Office

It seems the Danville Advocate would not know a merry jest if it met one in the middle of the road. The Interior Journal's suggestion that the material in Boyle for further political preferment is sadly lacking, was intended as a joke of the purest ray serene, and we supposed any one save a "solid ivory top" would recognize it. Hereafter when ever we attempt to perpetrate any such, we will furnish a card index and diagram of same for the benefit of our beloved brothers of the Advocate.

Seriously, there are no finer democrats anywhere than those of our neighbor county, and the fact that a number of the leading members of the party there have received such high honors at its hands is a cause of gratulation to us and to their host of friends in Lincoln. In two prominent instances the democrats of Lincoln played a humble part in bestowing the honors referred to. In the Eighth District convention in Louisville, Hon. Robert G. Evans, was chosen as one of the two delegates to the national convention, while Hon. Robert Harding was named elector for the state at large, in both of which cases the Lincoln county democrats voted solidly and enthusiastically for the Boyle candidates.

Then again, when Senator Ollie M. James looked over the state for a sterling young democrat to become his private secretary, he chose one of the editors of the Advocate, Hon. W. V. Richardson. When Governor McCreary sought a competent and loyal democrat for his private secretaryship, he selected, Hon. Francis B. Douglas. Then after serving with great credit as State Election Commissioner for years, Hon. Charles R. McDowell was appointed attorney to the new Insurance Board after declining the position of First Assistant Attorney General, and there are other positions of importance and honor with handsome salaries attached which have been and are being filled by leading democrats of Boyle.

The democrats of our sister county have been properly and rightfully honored, and so close are the ties that bind us, that we rejoice in their preferment, and have in all of these instances given our hearty endorsement to the appointments. Any argument that Lincoln democrats are being honored with office more than those of Boyle is totally without foundation, when the facts are considered.

The most delightful summer meeting of the Kentucky Press Association it has ever been the pleasure of the L. J. editor to attend, was held last week at Olympian Springs. No more entrancing spot to spend a summer vacation could be imagined. Everything possible was done to make the editors enjoy their visit, which they did to the utmost. E. D. Shinnick, of the Shelby Record was elected president of the Association, John S. Lawrence, of the Cadiz Record, vice president, and J. R. Lemon, of the Mayfield Messenger chairman of the executive committee. J. C. Aleock, of the Jeffersonian, was re-elected secretary. The prize for the best weekly newspaper in the state was won by the Big Sandy News, of Louisa, Lawrence county. The prize for the best semi-weekly newspaper in the state was won by the Interior Journal.

The Advocate says in its account of the congressional speaking there Saturday "A large crowd of Stanford supporters came with him (Helm) and were stationed at different points in the house and proceeded to 'tear down the building' every time their candidate made a point. It is rumored that several of Helm's Boyle county supporters were requested to join in the 'rough house' tactics. The scheme was a petty political trick at the worst and fooled a lot of people." Then again it says that remarks of Congressman Helm were greeted by "shouting, yelling and stamping of the organized rooters from Stanford."

It's really amusing how the Advocate thus seeks to discredit the spontaneous enthusiasm which Congressman Helm awakened in his large following in Boyle, by claiming that it was caused by "organized rooters from Stanford." All told there were not a dozen men from Stanford in the audience. The "organized rooters" were Prof. J. W. Ireland, Attorney J. N. Saunders, Attorney T. J. Hill, Jr., Rowan Saufley, who was there as a representative of the L. J. and there may have been one or two others. The "rooting" came from Helm's enthusiastic and loyal friends in Boyle, who saw how completely he outclassed his opponents in every way, and who will again be found "rooting" for him, by a large and enthusiastic majority on August 3rd, notwithstanding the efforts to trade them off for a Resident Secretary.

Reports from Lawrenceburg Monday were to the effect that Congressman Helm received the same enthusiastic reception there that he did in Boyle. Both of his opponents spoke against him, but he had everything his way. A leading democrat of Anderson telephoned to Stanford that the crowd was 10 to 1 for Helm and that Anderson's vote would be found recorded in the same proportion on primary day.

The Danville Advocate says that "It is generally understood that Congressman Helm is a hot anti-administration man." Which is wholly a misrepresentation. On the other hand we have it from reliable Boyle county democrats that the only opposition to instructing the Boyle county delegation to the state convention to vote for Governor McCreary for chairman of the state convention, came from the editors of the Advocate, who wanted a James delegation. What right has that paper to question the standing of any man in such a connection? Congressman Helm was at the head of the Lincoln county delegation, which was unanimously instructed in the county convention for McCreary for chairman, and Congressman Helm himself cast the vote of the county for McCreary for chairman and for John C. C. Mayo for National Committeemen, the only issues upon which the question of administration or anti-administration was brought out. And in both of these cases, the Advocate was against McCreary and his friends.

Of course a Resident Secretary should carry his home county for the candidate who hands him the nice fat job, that, undoubtedly, is to be expected, whether or not it is the quid pro quo, implied or expressed in so many words or contract. However, the Advocate was unable to carry Boyle county for James against McCreary, notwithstanding the fact that one of its editors is James' Secretary. Now let's see if the other can turn the trick for Sullivan against Helm in Boyle. Mac ought by all means to deliver the goods, especially as he has the appointment in advance. We have a suspicion, however, that the unpurchasable democrats of Boyle are going to have something to say about the matter themselves. Boyle is a Helm county overwhelmingly, and we do not believe it can be traded off in any such style, as seems proposed.

W. O. McIntyre, one of the editors of the Danville Advocate, announces that Judge Sullivan has appointed him "Resident Secretary" in the event he is elected to Congress. Who really believes that the good democrats of Boyle are going to be taken in by any such deal? They are for Harvey Helm overwhelmingly, and we do not believe that they are going to permit any man to trade them off in such fashion as is being attempted.

If Owen McIntyre is to be Resident Secretary for Judge Sullivan in Boyle county, why shouldn't Green Clay Walker get the job for Garrard? Then too, there three deserving pencil pushers in Jessamine three in Shelby, one in Adair, one in Spencer, all not in the home county of any candidate, who should be taken care of by Judge Sullivan, if he's going to play the game for all its worth, along this line. We vigorously object to any discrimination among our deserving newspaper friends.

Judge Sullivan's Resident Secretary in Boyle, W. O. McIntyre says in his announcement that he has never scratched a ticket. We would like to humbly inquire whether like Judge Sullivan he refused to vote for Bryan for president in 1896?

Brodhead.

Mr. and Mrs. Chas. Pike and little daughter have returned to their home at Corbin, after visiting relatives here.

Miss Bertha Thompson, of Crawfordville, Ind., is the guest of Miss Mattie Owens.

Miss Etta Cable, Mrs. Ben Pike, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Hiatt, Wallace Haggard, Monroe Francisco, and Henry Anderson attended the commencement exercises in Mt. Vernon, last Friday night.

Chas. Graham, of Lebanon and Earl Shiver, of Henderson, were in town Sunday.

Miss Thos. Capps returned to her home at Lebanon Junction Tuesday after visiting her mother, Mrs. Brown.

Urban Cass leaves Monday for Nome, Alaska.

Miss Emma Farris, of Crab Orchard, is the guest of Mrs. H. L. Tharp.

Mr. and Mrs. Herndon Hutecheson spent first of the week in Martineburg.

Wallace Haggard and James Frith are visiting in Richmond and Berea this week.

Misses Susie and Edna Hicks left Monday for Rowland to join their parents.

Chas. Lawrence, of Indianapolis, Ind., is visiting here.

Mrs. Per Shelton and children are visiting in Boston and Shepherdsville this week.

Brown & Craig shipped a car-load of hogs Tuesday to Cincinnati, bought at 5 cents to 6 cents. They also bought several heads of cattle at 3 1-2 cents.

Mrs. L. F. Mattingly, of Paris, is visiting Miss Jewel Francisco.

Mrs. J. L. Holtzclaw, who has been visiting here has returned to her home near Stanford.

R. H. Hamm and J. B. Pike, were in Pine Hill Wednesday.

Miss Hazel Reynolds, who has been attending the Brown Memorial at Mt. Vernon, returned home Saturday.

Hustonsville.

Mr. and Mrs. Hill Spalding and beautiful little daughter, Katherine, Alcorn of Louisville, arrived Friday for a visit to Dr. Edward Alcorn and family.

Misses Lottie and Louise Cooke, who attended school at Maryville, Tenn., arrived Wednesday to spend vacation with their grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. McKinney.

Mrs. Harold Drake, of Boston, arrived Thursday for a visit to Miss Lucy Alcorn.

Mrs. F. M. Ware and Miss Ware, of McKinney, were here Wednesday for a short time.

Mrs. Eugene Pope arrived Friday for a short visit to Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rout.

Miss Margaret McCormack and Clinton Bastin motored to Danville, Thursday.

Mr. J. G. Cunningham, of Danville, passed through here en route to Ellsburg last week.

Geo. Hunn, of Columbia, was here Saturday.

Mr. J. S. Carpenter has returned from Stanford, where he spent the winter.

Rev. and Mrs. Sures delightfully entertained their Sunday school class Thursday evening.

Dr. Ed Alcorn left Sunday for a business trip to Washington, D. C.

Master Charles Ormand, of Danville, visited his grandfather, Mr. Evan Lyon, last week.

Col. Wells, of Liberty, came up Saturday to see his new grandson, George Edward Powell.

Mr. and Mrs. Ross Bastin visited Mr. Clinton Bastin at Hotel Weatherford last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith T. Powell, are receiving congratulations upon the arrival of a fine little son, which has been christened George Edward.

Mr. Joe Gann, left Wednesday for a visit to relatives at Monticello.

Misses Anna Barker, Blanche Barnette and Geo. Barnette attended the opening of Golden Dawn Thursday.

Mrs. J. P. Gann and Miss Julia Gann were in Danville shopping Thursday.

Miss June Armistead, of Louisville arrived Thursday for a visit to Rev. and Mrs. Sures.

Miss Fay Peyton passed through here Thursday en route to her home at Ellsburg from Indiana where she visited relatives for two months.

Messrs. H. J. Adams, C. R. McCormack, Geo. Tucker, J. B. Riffe, motored to Louisville Wednesday.

Miss Angie Carpenter has returned from Danville where she visited relatives last week.

Misses Sadie and Bessie Baughman were guests of Stanford friends last week.

Mrs. C. R. McCormack and little son Carroll, visited Mrs. Jason Taylor of Danville last week.

Mr. and Mrs. Nathan Pipes were in Stanford Wednesday shopping.

Mr. Noah Snow has returned from Indiana where he visited relatives.

Mrs. A. Newton and Miss Alma Barker spent Wednesday in Danville shopping.

Mrs. Belle Barnette and son, Ore, were in Stanford Wednesday.

Mrs. Alberta Carr and daughter, of Danville, visited Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Rout last week.

Mr. Joe McWilliams, of Ellsburg, was here Monday for a few hours.

Men's Shoes

At no time in our lives have we been better prepared than today to furnish Shoes for every occasion and for all purposes.

Dress Shoes What we mean by Dress Shoes is Patent leather, tan and gun metal-leather we dress or polish. In these we show the

Matchless Nettleton

at $5, $5.50 and $6. The

Walk-Over, the most extensively advertised shoe in the world, at $3.50 to $5.00.

These are all in both low shoes and regular top.

Work Shoes We mean by Work Shoes, calf and kip stock, unlined and tanned by the modern processes, where the stock remains soft when old. When it comes to WORK SHOES proper, we say the "Menzie's" at $3, $3.50 and $4.00, are in a class to themselves. They are strong; they are comfortable; they look genteel. We are doing the shoe business. Come see us.

oooooooooooooooooooo

H. J. McROBERTS
Stanford, Kentucky

Hay Rakes
Hay Forks
Mowing Blades Etc., at

W.H.Higgins
Stanford, Ky.

The Lincoln County National Bank

Corner Next to Court House
Stanford, Kentucky

Capital - $100,000
Surplus - $100,100

First on Honor Roll in Stanford and Lincoln County
First in Central and South-east Kentucky
Tenth in State of Kentucky

Deposit Bank of Stanford, chartered March 9, 1854.
it's successor:
National Bank of Stanford, organized June 2, 1865.

Reorganized as First National Bank
OCTOBER 3, 1882

This Bank has been in successful and uninterrupted operation for 58 years, and is worthy of the confidence of the public. Open an account with us today.

A STEADY purpose in this life is one of the best aids to success. If that purpose be the resolve to make money your success will be sure and satisfactory.

A young man should anchor himself to bank account as the first step to success. As this account grows so will HIS CONFIDENCE IN HIMSELF TO MAKE GOOD.

STATE BANK & TRUST CO.,
Stanford, Ky.
Capital $50,000.

W. L. McCARTY, Pres. J. D. EADS, V-Pres.
G. L. PENNY, V. Pres. J. S. RICE, V. Pres.
M. B. SALIN, Cashier. S. ALBERT PHILLIPS, A-Cash'r

Corsets

You can make no mistake in buying a Warner's Rust-Proof Corset, price $1, $1.50 and $2.

Also a full line of American Beauty Corsets, prices $1 to $3.50.

Hughes, Martin & Co.
Stanford, Ky.